Seeks Comments Regarding the Potential Reappointment of Administrative Law Judge
Jesse Goode.

This is to notify members of the bar and the general public, pursuant to section 3705.7 of Title 6 of the DCMR, that the Commission has begun review of the qualifications for reappointment of Administrative Law Judge Jesse Goode of the District of Columbia Office of Administrative Hearings. The Commission shall reappoint the Administrative Law Judge if it finds that the Administrative Law Judge has satisfactorily performed the responsibilities of his or her office and is likely to continue to do so.

In addition to the specific qualifications applicable to all Administrative Law Judges contained in section 3703 of Title 6 of the DCMR (Appointment, Reappointment, Discipline, and Removal of Administrative Law Judges by the Commission on Selection and Tenure of Administrative Law Judges), section 3703.5 of Title 6 of the DCMR states that "[a]n Administrative Law Judge shall possess judicial temperament, judgment, expertise and analytical and other skills necessary and desirable for an Administrative Law Judge."

The Commission hereby requests members of the bar and other attorneys, litigants, interested organizations, and members of the public to submit any information bearing on the qualifications of Administrative Law Judge Goode which it believes will aid the Commission in deciding whether to reappoint him as an Administrative Law Judge. The cooperation of the community at an early stage will greatly aid the Commission in fulfilling its responsibilities. The identity of any person submitting information shall be kept confidential unless expressly authorized by the person submitting the information.
